Each of these businesses are completely separate entities that may elect to recommend the services of the other and offer discounted pricing due to this relationship. Plan Participants are under no obligation to obtain financial planning or investment services through iis as this is an obvious conflict of interest that potentially benefits the representative. Plan Participants of these outside businesses may elect to purchase investments or insurance products elsewhere and clients of intellicents investment solutions, may elect to purchase administrative services elsewhere.

For services provided by the affiliated iis companies, the companies and Petros Koumantaros may receive consulting fees and/or commissions on sales of any investment and product sold to clients. iis may also provide investment advisory services to the clients of the affiliated intellicents investment solutions companies; however, iis never receives commissions on any assets under management for which iis receives advisory fees.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Because of the nature and extent of the business intellicents investment solutions (iis and its affiliates) provides various custodians and mutual fund companies "revenue sharing" in the form of shareholder servicing fees, sub-transfer agency fees, 12b-1 fees and finders fees. These fees are fully disclosed to plan sponsors and participants and are passed on to the plan sponsor or the plan for use in offsetting plan related fees.

Item 6 - Supervision

Petros Koumantaros is one of several supervised persons who give general advice on behalf of intellicents investment solutions and under the direct supervision of Mr. Nicholas Holmes, Chief Compliance Officer. Inquiries about Petros Koumantaros should be forwarded to Mr. Nicholas Holmes at 800-880-4015.
