Item 3- Disciplinary Information

intellicents investment solutions inc. (“iis”) is required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. iis has no information to disclose in relation to this item.

Item 4- Other Business Activities

intellicents investment solutions inc. is part of a consortium of companies that focus on providing employee benefit services to employers. The services include investment advisory services provided through iis, and through its affiliated companies: life, disability and health insurance services, and benefits consulting services that range from defined contribution retirement Plans to employee wellness programs.

To provide brokerage and insurance services, Landon Vander Leest is a registered representative of Mutual Securities, Inc. of California, a registered broker dealer and member of FINRA.

For services provided by the affiliated intellicents investment solutions companies, the companies and Landon Vander Leest may receive consulting fees and/or commissions on sales of any investment and insurance product sold to clients. iis may also provide investment advisory services to the clients of the affiliated intellicents investment solutions companies; however, iis never receives commissions on any assets under management for which iis receives advisory fees.

Item 5- Additional Compensation

Because of the nature and extent of the business intellicents investment solutions (iis and its affiliates) provides various custodians and mutual fund companies “revenue sharing” in the form of shareholder servicing fees, sub-transfer agency fees, 12b-1 fees and finders fees. These fees are fully disclosed to plan sponsors and participants and are passed on to the plan sponsor or the plan for use in offsetting plan related fees.

Item 6 - Supervision

Landon Vander Leest is one of several supervised persons who give general advice on behalf of intelligents investment solutions and under the direct supervision of Mr. Nicholas Holmes. Inquiries about Landon Vander Leest should be forwarded to Mr. Nicholas Holmes at 800-880-4015.
